FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Grafenwöhr Training Area training advisory for May 27-28, 2015

GRAFENWÖHR, Germany (May 20, 2015) – This is an informational advisory for the communities around the Grafenwöhr Training Area. Times and locations of activities in this announcement may change due to weather conditions or as determined necessary by Grafenwoehr Range Operations division. This release is not all inclusive, it is meant to provide information about potential noise generating events for the local population.

May 27-28: German Tornados (live munitions) (1030-1130)

According to the SOFA agreement, Grafenwöhr Training Area operates range operations from 0800 to 0200 in the month of May.

For information about future noise producing training events, please refer to our regularly published training advisories.

The Joint Multinational Training Command is conscious of the impact that training activities have on the local community. We strive to be good members of the community and provide information about what we do. Whenever possible, we avoid training that will inconvenience the local community. We schedule the majority of our training events during weekdays and normal work day hours. Some military training requires training during hours of darkness, and sometimes scheduling requires training on the weekends. The Grafenwoehr Training Area serves a wide variety of customers, Bundeswehr, Luftwaffe, U.S. military, other NATO Allies, and more.
