

TF Mountain Warrior of the Day

SGT Lawrence Sellers
554th MP CO

SGT Lawrence Sellers is a squad leader with "UGLY" Platoon, 554th Military Police Company at Forward Operating Base Finley-Shields, Afghanistan. On 30 September, SGT Sellers demonstrated his leadership and selfless nature when conducting a dismounted combat patrol in the city of Jalalabad. When the patrol encountered a possible Improvised Explosive Device (IED) placed at an intersection, SGT Sellers ensured his Soldiers were behind cover and directed a DUKE-equipped Mine Resistant Ambush Protected Vehicle to move forward. Under the Electronic Counter Measure protection bubble provided by the DUKE system, SGT Sellers moved in to confirm and report the IED. Explosive Ordnance Disposal (EOD) was called upon confirmation and SGT Sellers secured the scene ensuring his Soldiers and the citizens of Jalalabad remained out of harm's way until the IED was rendered safe.
