APPENDIX B
RETENTION COUNSELING

The Total Army Career Counseling System (TACCS) is a tool designed to develop leaders, improve force alignment and impact Army end strength. The system is comprised of four phases of counseling; Integration, Professional Development, Sustainment, and Career Development. Leaders counsel Soldiers throughout their careers, from initial entry to retirement.

Integration. Vital to the Army’s sponsorship program. Integration will assist to reduce turbulence with Soldiers when they initially arrive at their units. All Soldiers will be counseled by their Leaders to ensure that critical areas have been addressed (sponsorship, basic human needs, personnel and financial issues, military programs and family support groups).

Professional Development. This applies to all Soldiers not serving in an indefinite status. Leaders will counsel these Soldiers on understanding the Army. This function will focus on educating Soldiers on the Decentralized and Semi-centralized promotion systems, the Army Continuing Education system, various military schools, reclassification, special programs, importance of diverse assignments, finding a mentor and establishing short/long term goals. This phase will assist in developing the Soldier on the Army as a profession.

Sustainment. Retains quality Soldiers. Enhances Army readiness. Reenlistment enhances Army readiness by aligning the current force with Army force structure requirements based on established priorities at the time of reenlistment. For those Soldiers that decide to separate at ETS, the Leaders will assist them in continuing to serve with the Army as they transition into civilian life. Transition comes in several forms; enlistment into the ARNGUS, transfer/enlistment into the USAR, or retirement.

Career Development. Applies to Soldiers serving on their second or subsequent term of service in the Army. It focuses counseling Soldiers on the Army as a career. This function will educate Soldiers on the Centralized promotion system, education (military and civilian), special programs, and assignments, retention control points, retirement, indefinite reenlistment, mentoring, establishing short/long term goals, etc.

All Soldiers in the reenlistment window will be counseled by a 79S Career Counselor.
