FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Convoy advisory for “Dragoon Ride”

The final kilometers of the 2nd Cavalry Regiment convoy named “Dragoon Ride” will go through Bavaria on Wednesday, 1 April.

The first vehicles will cross from the Czech Republic border at Waldhaus on A6 at approximately 0800.

The route will take them on A6 to A93, then North on A93 and take exit 27 on B14.

The route will follow B14 from A93 to Hahnbach where it will turn North on St2120.

The route will follow St2120 from Hahnbach to Sorghof and end at U.S. Army Rose Barracks.

2nd Cavalry Regiment vehicles will be on the route between 0800 to 1500.

The entire convoy is approximately 90 vehicles, split into 6 groups separated by 20-45 minutes.

We ask for your considerations as the convoy may cause congestion at intersections and passing through towns.

Military convoys move slowly and often have limited visibility. Please use caution when passing or driving near military convoys.

The Bavarian community is welcome to come out and welcome home the Cavalry troopers as they finish the final kilometers of their historic drive home.
