7TH ARMY TRAINING COMMAND

GRAFENWÖHR, GERMANY

OUR MISSION

The 7th Army Training Command provides dynamic training, preparing U.S., NATO, and partner-nation forces to execute Unified Land Operations and contingency missions.

Headquartered in Grafenwöhr, Germany, the 7ATC is uniquely organized to support the U.S. Army's training requirements for units stationed in or forward deployed to Europe. As the Army's only unified training command, we have an organic ability to provide training from the individual Soldier to the Joint Task Force headquarters.

LOCATION MATTERS

We are centrally located among the highest concentration of U.S. Allies and Partners in the world.

By routinely training together with the 7ATC, Allies and Partners build trust, develop interoperability and set the conditions for creating the strong coalitions that will guarantee peace and security in the region.
