12. No promise of confidentiality offered: (1) This accident investigation board has been convened under the provisions of AR 385-40 to conduct a safety investigation. (2) This may be just one of a number of investigations being conducted regarding this accident; collateral or legal investigations may be ongoing as well. Those investigations are entirely separate from a safety investigation and those investigators are required to inform you of their purpose and of your legal rights. (3) This safety investigation is being conducted for accident-prevention purposes only. In the military, pursuant to AR 385-40, it cannot be used for any other purpose, to include any future disciplinary actions against any individuals. Therefore, the statements you make during this interview will be used by the Army in the interest of safety and accident prevention only. (4) The chain of command will review the final accident report, which may include a summary of your interview, but the chain of command may use the investigation report and interviews only for safety and-accident prevention purposes. The interview summary may be released to the public pursuant to a Freedom of Information Act request. (5) If you ever have knowledge that your witness interview was used by the Army for anything other than accident-prevention purposes (for example, disciplinary action against an individual), you should consult with your local judge advocate defense counsel office and request that the Command Judge Advocate, United States Army Safety Center, be notified at DSN 312-558-2924 or civilian (334) 255-2954.
