MEMORANDUM FOR

HQ USAREUR Staff Principals and Commander, HHBN, USAREUR
Commanders of USAREUR Major Subordinate and Specialized Commands
Director, IMCOM-Europe, and IMCOM-Europe Staff Principals
Commanders, United States Army Garrisons and Forward Operating Sites in Europe

SUBJECT: CG Sends—The U.S. Army Threat Awareness and Reporting Program

This memorandum expires in 1 year.

1. Reference AR 381-12, Threat Awareness and Reporting Program.
2. Each individual in the Army in Europe needs to be able to recognize and report threats before they occur. The Threat Awareness and Reporting Program (TARP) trains individuals to recognize those threats by outlining the indicators of terrorism, espionage, and potential insider threats directed against Army activities in Europe. The new U.S. Army Europe iReport application (available in the Apple, Google, and Microsoft app stores) allows Army Soldiers, Civilian employees, contractors, and Family members the ability to fill out an iSalute or iWatch report form in an easily accessible, one-stop reporting app. I encourage everyone to become familiar with this process that allows quick and easy reporting of suspicious activity.
3. Because TARP is the fundamental building block of our theater force-protection strategy, I expect all Army unit commanders in Europe to enforce annual TARP training requirements and ensure all Soldiers, Civilian employees, and contractors are both knowledgeable about TARP reporting procedures and aware of the iReport app.
4. We deter threats through knowledge, and that knowledge can come only from you. Using TARP to provide every member of the Army in Europe team with the knowledge required to identify and report threats will raise the collective awareness of our environment and ultimately protect ourselves from those threats.

Army Strong! Strong Europe!
